DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Detroit, Michigan, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant was born on October 20, 1980, in Toronto, Canada. The applicant's father, [REDACTED] was born in China in September 1943 and never became a U.S. citizen. The applicant's mother, [REDACTED], was born in the United States in February 1956. The applicant's parents married each other on July 27, 1975. The applicant is seeking a certificate of citizenship under § 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1433.

The district director reviewed the record and concluded that the applicant had reached the age of 18 years prior to the completion of processing of her application and denied the application accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant's mother states that the application was filed in a timely manner, but the Service office failed to expedite the application in a timely manner.

Section 322 of the Act provides, in part, that:

(a) APPLICATION OF CITIZEN PARENTS: REQUIREMENTS.-A parent who is a citizen of the United States may apply to the Attorney General for a certificate of citizenship on behalf of a child born outside the United States. The Attorney General shall issue such a certificate of citizenship upon proof to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(1) At least one parent is a citizen of the United States, whether by birth or naturalization.

(2) The child is physically present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission.

(3) The child is under the age of 18 years and in the legal custody of the citizen parent.

(4) If the citizen parent is an adoptive parent of the child, the child was adopted by the citizen parent before the child reached the age of 16 years and the child meets the requirements for being a child under subparagraph (E) or (F) of § 101(b)(1).

(5) If the citizen parent has not been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years-

(A) The child is residing permanently in the United States with the citizen parent, pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence, or

(B) A citizen parent of the citizen parent has been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years.

(b) ATTAINMENT OF CITIZENSHIP STATUS; RECEIPT OF CERTIFICATE.-Upon approval of the application (which may be filed abroad) and, except as provided in the last sentence of § 337(a), upon taking and subscribing before an officer of the Service within the United States to the oath of allegiance required by this Act of an applicant for naturalization, the child shall become a citizen of the United States and shall be furnished by the Attorney General with a certificate of citizenship.

It was formerly the case that, for a child born before November 14, 1986, the citizen grandparents had to have been physically present in the United States for at least 10 years, at least 5 of which were after the grandparent's 14th birthday. Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996, Pub. L. No. 104-208, division C, § 671(b)(2), 110 Stat. 3009-546, 3009-721 (1996). Congress repealed that requirement in 1997. Act of August 8, 1997, 111 Stat. 1115 (1997).

The record reflects that the applicant's maternal grandfather was born in Idaho and has satisfied the physical presence requirement.

8 C.F.R. 322.2(a) provides that to be eligible for "expeditious naturalization" under § 322 of the Act, a child on whose behalf an application for naturalization has been filed by a parent who is, at the time of filing, a citizen of the United States, must: (1) Be unmarried and under 18 years of age, both at the time of application and at the time of admission to citizenship.

8 C.F.R. 341.2(c) provides that the burden of proof shall be on the claimant to establish the claimed citizenship by a preponderance of the evidence. The applicant was over the age of 18 years before the time of admission to citizenship. Therefore, the appeal will be dismissed.

This decision is without prejudice to the applicant's seeking U.S. citizenship through normal naturalization procedures by filing an Application for Naturalization on Form N-400 with a Service office having jurisdiction over her residence.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
